

Color: God's Intention for Diversity is an amazing flow of insight and treasures of thought relative to the lived experiences of both Dany and Carla. It's vividly written by means of dynamic storytelling, pragmatic wisdom, and a didactic display of God's creativity through diversity. A must-read, indeed!

—Sidney K. Mitchell, PhD
Agape Fellowship Church of the Nazarene

"Carla Sunberg and Dany Gomis summon the church to see the likeness of Jesus reflected in every person. Color is a call to live, see, and know Christ in the beautiful diversity that God intended when God created every race."

—Filimao Chambo, PhD
General Superintendent
Church of the Nazarene

"However warm-hearted the sentiment 'better together,' it is true only if we are intentionally listening to those with different stories from our own. Creatively approaching these conversations in Color, Carla Sunberg and Dany Gomis provide rich insights and fresh perspectives about the beauty of holiness that can only be expressed via diversity within the church of Jesus Christ.
