

■ Contents

Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
General Introduction	xix
Abbreviations	xxv
PART 1: Faith and History	1
A. THE STUDY OF THEOLOGY	3
Introduction	5
1. Theology: A Brief History	7
a. Theology and the Theological Disciplines	7
b. Theology, the Church, and the Churches	10
c. The Great Doctors	12
The Greek Fathers	12
Latin Theology	13
The Reformers	14
d. Theology in the Modern Era	15
The ‘Liberal’ Theology of ‘Modernity’	15
The Recovery of Biblical, Nicene Theology	16
e. Christian Theology and the Worldwide Church	18
Is This Merely European Theology?	18
Diversity within Unity	20
2. The Wesleyan Perspective	23
a. The Wesleys as Theologians	26
Their Catholic Spirit	27
Their Evangelical Faith	28
Their Insight and Limitations	29
b. The Wesleyan Tradition	33
Nineteenth-Century British Theologians	33
The Increasing Influence of ‘Liberal’ Theology	34
The Holiness Movement	37
The Rediscovery of the Theology of the Wesleys	40
3. The Contemporary Scene	45
a. The West: Europe and North America	46
Modernist Theology and Postmodernism	46
A Cartography of Contemporary Theological Schools	48
Evangelical Theology	55

b. Global Theology	61
Missiology	62
Latin America	64
African Theology	65
Christian Theology in Asia	67
Evangelical Theology: The Lausanne Movement	70
c. Conclusion	72
4. The Structure of These Three Volumes	73
a. The Disadvantages of the Traditional Order	75
b. The Advantages of Beginning with Christ	77
c. Volume I	81
d. Volumes II and III	85
B. JESUS OF NAZARETH: HISTORICAL PROLEGOMENA	89
Introduction	91
5. Jesus and the Method of History	97
a. The Enlightenment and Deism	98
Rationalism and Empiricism	99
Deism	100
The German Aufklärung: Reimarus and Lessing	100
The Scottish Enlightenment and Kant	101
b. Historiography and Historicism	103
Historicism and Romanticism: Humboldt, Coleridge and Schleiermacher	105
Metaphysical Historicism: Hegel	107
Strauss: Das Leben Jesu	108
c. Historicism, Atheism, and Hermeneutics	111
Positivism, Utilitarianism and Darwin	111
Objective Historiography: Leopold von Ranke	113
Wilhelm Dilthey and Hermeneutics	114
Ernst Troeltsch: Historicism Dominant	115
6. The Quests for the 'Historical' Jesus	117
a. The End of the First Quest	118
Schweitzer: Terminating the First Quest	118
Kähler: Rejecting the Historical Method	119
Dialectical Theology and the Existentialism of Bultmann	121
b. The Second Quest	123
Käsemann, Bornkamm, Conzelmann, Fuchs and Ebeling	124
The Methodology: Van Harvey	125
The Jesus Seminar	128
J.D. Crossan	129
c. The Third Quest	130

Jesus the Jew: Vermes and Borg	131
Jesus the Prophet and Reformer: Theissen, Horsley and Kaylor	132
Jesus the Prophet of the Kingdom: Sanders, Casey and Meier	133
Jesus the Messiah: Stuhlmacher, Marshall, Pokorný, Dunn, Bockmuehl and de Jonge	135
Jesus and Wisdom: Fiorenza and Witherington	135

d. Conclusion 136

C. JESUS THE CHRIST: HISTORICAL PROLEGOMENA 139

Introduction 141

7. The Faith of Israel 145

a. Second Temple Judaism 145

The Hebrew Scriptures 147

b. Old Testament Theology 148

Biblical Theology in the Nineteenth Century 149

Eichrodt and von Rad 150

Old Testament Theology Since 1970 153

Brueggemann and Goldingay 155

c. The God of Israel 158

The God of the Hebrew Scriptures 158

Pesach (Passover): The God of Redemption 161

Shavu'ot (Pentecost): The God of Covenant and Torah 166

Rosh Hashana (New Year): The God of Creation 171

Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement): The Holy God 175

Succoth (Tabernacles): The God of Pilgrimage 181

d. Conclusion 183

8. Jesus and the Story of Israel 185

a. N.T. Wright's Methodology 189

Literature 189

History 190

Theology 192

b. Wright on Judaism 192

The Jewish Story, Symbol and Praxis 193

The Beliefs of Israel 195

The Hope of Israel 197

c. Jesus of Nazareth 198

Parables and Paradigms 199

The Basic Facts 200

d. Jesus the Prophet 201

Evoking the Story of Israel 203

The Summons 205

Judgment and Vindication 207

Symbol and Controversy 207

Key Questions	208
e. The Mindset of Jesus	209
Messiah	209
The Reasons for His Crucifixion	211
Assessment	214
9. The Resurrection of the Messiah	219
a. Pannenberg on History and the Resurrection	220
Faith and History	221
The Historicity of the Resurrection	224
b. N.T. Wright on the Resurrection	226
The Cultural Context: Views of Life after Death	227
Resurrection in Paul	229
Two Key Passages	232
The New Testament as a Whole and the
Resurrection Narratives	234
The Logic of the Argument	238
c. History and Faith	241
History and Secularism	241
Three Views	243
History and Eschatology	247
Bibliography	251